

I'm not located in Massachusetts

Does MARC provide programs and services
for schools and organizations in other locations?

The Massachusetts Aggression Reduction Center at Bridgewater State University provides bullying and cyberbullying prevention services and programs to K-12 Education, Higher Education, and other organizations and stakeholders (e.g., pediatricians, counselors, attorneys, etc.).

While some of our programs and services are ONLY available to schools in Massachusetts, many others are available in any location.

Zero-Cost Programs and Services Available Outside of Massachusetts

Please See Http://www.MARCcenter.org For Details
On These Programs/Services

All of these programs are available at NO COST to schools unless otherwise noted.

 Our Curricula are offered free of cost to schools outside of Massachusetts, but schools must agree to survey students in the school first. This is both to improve your use of the Curriculum in your school, and to contribute to our pool of research data that helps us develop all our Curricula, programs, and services.

MARC Faculty

* Dr. Elizabeth Englander (Director)

* Professor Meghan McCoy (Program Coordinator)

The Massachusetts Aggression Reduction Center at Bridgewater State University is an academic training Center that utilizes faculty and students to bring programs and services.

MARC students cannot travel to other states.

However, at times MARC faculty may be available to travel to other states. We do frequently travel to present at conferences, conduct workshops or training at schools, and other professional venues. However, scheduling is paramount and any out-of-state requests should be submitted as early as possible.

Fees may apply for out-of-state services. More information is available at www.elizabethenglander.com. To contact us, click on CONTACT ME at that website.
