School Mission:

St. Elizabeth School in Wilmington, Delaware is a Diocesan school, inspired by the teachings of St. Benedict and rooted in Catholic faith. We foster spiritual development, academic excellence, responsibility to self, and service to others in grades Pre-K 3 through 12.

Job Description:

St. Elizabeth is seeking an innovative, dynamic, collaborative teacher who will be responsible for educating 5th and 6th grade students beginning in the fall of the 2023-2024 school year. This is a unique, exciting opportunity for a passionate teacher who wants to work in a well-established institution that remains true to its Benedictine roots.

Our ideal candidate provides a rigorous learning environment for his/her students, helping them develop as individuals as well as master the subjects they need to succeed. Specifically, ideal candidates for this position are competent and experienced in teaching language arts and social studies content. The candidate will be responsible for developing lesson plans and then implementing them in the classroom with flexibility to tailor lessons to students' interests and strengths. Candidates should possess good communication skills to interact positively with students, staff, and parents.

In addition to classroom responsibilities, the candidate should be willing to serve as lead coordinator of our Student Leader Liaison.

How to Apply:

Please send resume and letter of interest to St. Elizabeth School or submit via email to Dr. Tracey Rush at trush@viking.pvt.k12.de.us
