

St. Mary Magdalen School

Students, Parents, Teachers
One Faith | One Goal | One Vision

Job Title: 8th Grade Homeroom Teacher
Reports to: Principal

Summary of Position: St. Mary Magdalen School seeks a qualified primary education teacher to join our faculty dedicated to nurturing and developing the whole child through education, service, and worship. Located in north Wilmington, Delaware, St. Mary Magdalen is a Catholic school serving students in grades PK3-8. As a homeroom teacher, the individual is responsible for teaching the 5th grade curriculum in collaboration with their grade partner.

Duties and Responsibilities: Preparing spiritual development component of curriculum for students; planning and executing dynamic whole group and small group instruction that engages students; utilizing a variety of teaching methods and creative hands-on learning; instilling a sense of respect and discipline and guiding children to appropriate behavior choices in a gentle and age-appropriate way; communicating with parents regarding their child's progress in school as frequently as is necessary; participating in the life and events of the St. Mary Magdalen community; other duties as assigned.

Minimum Required Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities:

- Bachelors in Education or applicable field
- Experience in elementary school teaching
- Hold or be eligible for Delaware or Maryland licensing/certification
- Desire to become part of a thriving school team and community