A National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence - 2010 & 2016

Position: McAuley Center Learning Support K-3 teacher

Christ the Teacher Catholic School, a nationally recognized school located in Newark, Delaware, is searching for a highly-motivated, engaging, initiative-seeking 1st grade teacher for the 2024-2025 school year.

As a McAuley Center Learning Support Teacher for K-3 students at Christ the Teacher Catholic school, you will play a vital role in providing specialized assistance and intervention to ensure the academic success of all students within the framework of our faith-based community. Your primary responsibility will be to work collaboratively with the Director of the McAuley Center, classroom teachers, administrators, and support staff to identify and address the unique learning needs of students, fostering a supportive and inclusive learning environment where every child can thrive academically, socially, and spiritually. This role requires a dedicated and compassionate educator who is committed to meeting the diverse needs of young learners and supporting their holistic development within the context of Catholic values and teachings.

Responsibilities:

- Collaborate with classroom teachers, administrators, and support professionals to identify students who may benefit from additional learning support and intervention within a Catholic school setting.
- Conduct assessments, screenings, and observations to identify students' strengths, challenges, and areas for growth, integrating principles of Catholic education and faith formation.
- Develop and implement individualized support plans and interventions to address students' academic, social-emotional, and behavioral needs while fostering spiritual growth and development.
- Provide targeted instruction and small group support to students, focusing on foundational skills such as literacy, numeracy, executive functioning, and social skills development within the context of Catholic teachings.
- Adapt and modify curriculum materials, instructional strategies, and learning activities to meet the diverse learning styles and abilities of students while infusing Catholic values and teachings throughout.
- Monitor students' progress and growth, adjusting interventions and supports as needed to ensure continuous improvement and success within a Catholic educational framework.

- Communicate regularly with parents/guardians, providing updates on students' progress, achievements, and areas for growth, and collaborating on strategies for support that align with Catholic values.
- Participate in team meetings, professional development opportunities, and collaborative planning sessions to enhance instructional practices and support the overall mission of the Catholic school community.
- Uphold the mission, vision, and values of the Catholic Church and the school community, modeling Catholic values and fostering a sense of community and belonging among students and staff.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in Education, Special Education, or a related field (Master's degree preferred).
- Valid teaching certification/license (DE or MD)
- Experience working with young children in an educational setting, preferably in a K-3 or early childhood environment within a Catholic school.
- Knowledge of early childhood development, assessment tools, and evidence-based interventions for supporting students with diverse learning needs within the context of Catholic education.
- Strong understanding of differentiated instruction, instructional strategies, and intervention techniques infused with Catholic teachings.
- Excellent communication, collaboration, and interpersonal skills, with the ability to work effectively within a Catholic school community.
- Compassion, patience, and empathy when working with students and families within a faith-based context.
- Flexibility, creativity, and a willingness to adapt teaching strategies to meet the individual needs of students within a Catholic educational framework.

Application Process:

To apply for the position of McAuley Center Learning Support Teacher Christ at the Teacher Catholic School, please submit your resume, cover letter, and any relevant supporting materials to Kelly M Lanza at klanza@christtheteacher.org. We look forward to reviewing your application and discussing how your skills and experience align with our school's mission and values.
