

St. Mary Magdalen School

Students, Parents, Teachers
One Faith | One Goal | One Vision

Job Title: 6th Grade Homeroom Teacher Reports to: Principal

Summary of Position: St. Mary Magdalen School seeks a qualified middle primary education teacher to join our faculty dedicated to nurturing and developing the whole child through education, service, and worship. Located in north Wilmington, Delaware, St. Mary Magdalen is a Catholic school serving students in grades PK3-8. As a homeroom teacher, the individual is responsible for teaching the 6th grade curriculum in collaboration with their grade partner.

Duties and Responsibilities Include: Preparing spiritual development component of curriculum for students; Planning and executing dynamic whole group and small group instruction that engages students; Utilizing a variety of methods of creative hands-on learning, including artistic expression and storytelling; Instilling a sense of respect and discipline and guiding children to appropriate behavior choices in a gentle and age-appropriate way; Communicating with parents regarding their child's progress in school as frequently as is necessary; Participating in the life and events of the St. Mary Magdalen community; Other duties as assigned.

Minimum Required Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities:

- Bachelors in Education or applicable field
- Experience in elementary school teaching
- Hold or be eligible for Delaware or Maryland licensing/certification
- Desire to become part of a thriving school team and community