

St. Mary Magdalen School

Students, Parents, Teachers
One Faith | One Goal | One Vision

Job Title: Spanish Teacher
Reports to: Principal

Summary of Position: St. Mary Magdalen School seeks a qualified Spanish teacher to join our faculty dedicated to nurturing and developing the whole child through education, service, and worship. Located in north Wilmington, Delaware, St. Mary Magdalen is a Catholic school serving students in grades PK3-8. As a member of the specials level, the individual is responsible for teaching all grades K-8. Spanish is scheduled once a week for K-6 classes and is daily for middle school students.

Duties and Responsibilities Include: Preparing spiritual development component of curriculum for students; Planning and executing dynamic whole group and small group instruction that engages students; Utilizing a variety of methods of creative hands-on learning, including artistic expression and storytelling; Instilling a sense of respect and discipline and guiding children to appropriate behavior choices in a gentle and age-appropriate way; Communicating with parents regarding their child's progress in school as frequently as is necessary; Participating in the life and events of the St. Mary Magdalen community; Other duties as assigned.

Minimum Required Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities:

- Bachelors in Education or applicable field
- Native fluency preferred
- Experience in elementary school teaching
- Hold or be eligible for Delaware or Maryland licensing/certification
- Desire to become part of a thriving school team and community