

RELIGIOUS STUDIES TEACHER

Position Overview

Padua Academy, a diocesan all-girls high school rooted in the Catholic faith, seeks applicants for a Religious Studies teaching position. Responsibilities will include teaching courses in the Religious Studies department and contributing to planning of spiritual formation programs for students and faculty in accordance with the mission of the school.

Responsibilities

- Teach classes following the Religious Studies department curriculum
- Incorporate classroom experiences and instructional resources that enrich teaching and learning
- Sustain a supportive classroom environment

Qualifications

- Bachelor of Arts or Graduate degree in Theology, Religious Studies, or Religious Education
- Previous teaching experience preferred
- Strong communication skills
- Must be a practicing Catholic with an active sacramental and faith life

How to Apply

Candidates for this position should submit a cover letter, resume, and contact information for three references to Dr. Mary McClory at mmcclory@paduaacademy.org

About Padua Academy

Rooted in the Catholic faith, Padua Academy offers young women a transformational college preparatory education, challenging them to live Christ-centered lives of leadership and service.